Dear Steve,

Thanks for your card.

Hope all of you have a fine holiday and a wonderful years ahead.

The O's did not do badly but except for two pitches would have done much better!

I do not know if anyone has sent you a copy but there is a second epilogue to Waketh (first was lost but is being retyped slowely now) and not retyped because I have nobody to do the retyping, an Afterword for it.

Plus other things I've not been able to get retyped/

Our best,

Harold
